Roblox is involved in a lawsuit concerning child safety on the Internet. On September 17, 2021, two brothers filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court, Southern District of California against Roblox Corporation and its founder and CEO David Baszucki. The suit alleged that the defendants failed to protect their nine- and thirteen-year-old sons from inappropriate content on Roblox that resulted in emotional distress. The suit also accuses the company of negligence for failure to monitor potentially harmful content and failure to institute parental monitoring measures. The case is known as "McDonald v. Roblox".

- The idea of having a game where you can make your own avatar and decorate your own house, it's pretty cool but it makes the game even more repetitive.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for being very difficult to use and has many bugs within the site interface itself, problems which seem to go unresolved by the development team despite repeated complaints over a number of years. Although the website's interface is not difficult to use, it has become more complex over the years with features such as video editing with a dedicated program and large amounts of unnecessary superfluous features. Some of the features include: UIs for uploading and viewing custom models, importing music, applications, and sounds; importing sounds from WAV files; creating galleries; creating art sheets; creating an unlimited amount of variations for models by changing their scale and pose; adding animations to models (e.g. walking); creating global themes which change every time you go into a game or lobby; creating global music tracks in . ROBLOX's interface has also become extremely frustrating, with a lot of features being inaccessible and hidden because of the aforementioned complexity.
